To: Ontario Soccer; District Membership, ORA and Associate Members
CC: Ontario Soccer Board of Directors, Staff
From: Johnny Misley, Chief Executive Officer
Subject: Ontario Soccer Board of Director Election results

Ontario Soccer has elected new members to its Board of Directors at the 2021 Annual Meeting of the Members (AMM) on Saturday. This event marked the organization's 120th annual meeting of the members since Ontario Soccer was established in 1901.

Peter Augruso of Thunder Bay was re-elected to the Ontario Soccer Board of Directors as President and will now serve his second term. Andy Charsley of Sudbury was elected as Regional Director – North and Jacques Konig of Toronto was elected as Regional Director – Central. Dr. Ann Pegoraro of Sudbury, who had been recommended by the Nominations Committee, was confirmed as a Designated Director.

In his first term, Augruso presided over Ontario Soccer during its most challenging time in its 120-year history.

This election brings three new faces to the boardroom and depth of soccer and sport leadership that will help strategically guide the organization, as soccer continues to recover from the ongoing public health situation.

Dr. Ann Pegoraro begins her first term as a Designated Director and has a wealth of experience as a sport industry academic and consultant. She has consulted to the Advisory Board of League1 Ontario's Guelph Union and is the Lang Chair in Sport Management and Full Professor at the Lang School of Business and Economics at the University of Guelph.

Andy Charsley becomes the Regional Director – North. Charsley has been active in the Greater Sudbury area soccer community for nearly two decades, working with various leagues at the recreational and competitive levels. He most recently served as the President of the Sudbury Regional Soccer Association (SRSA) and was a member of the Ontario Soccer District President's Forum. He will now step down as President of the SRSA to take on his role with the Ontario Soccer Board of Directors.

Jacques Konig assumes the role of Regional Director – Central. Konig has a long history of soccer leadership in Eastern Canada, most notably serving as League Director, Vice-President and President of the Toronto Soccer Association (TSA). He has served on a number of charitable, corporate and sport boards and holds a Ph. D from the University College in London, England. He will now step down as President of the TSA to take on his role with the Ontario Soccer Board of Directors.

Departing directors are David Miller – Designated Director, John Tzanis – Regional Director, Central and Rosie North – Regional Director, North. Ontario Soccer thanks them for their leadership and service during their tenure.

Due to the ongoing public health restrictions, this year's AMM was conducted online, in accordance with current government health orders.

In the Ontario Soccer governance structure, the business of Ontario Soccer is conducted by a Board of Directors, composed of 12 elected individuals and one senior executive.

The 21 District Soccer Associations who are the "Voting Members" are represented by a Provincial President's Forum. The Forum is composed of the President, or designate representing each District Association in Ontario and it submits recommendations to the Ontario Soccer Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer on a number of soccer game related matters.
